*In the feverish rush of people and events,
The individual is often lost—forgotten—blurred out.
In solitude he is brought forward—
Recognized as an essential reality;
But in the midst of a complex world,
His existence is no less real.
He is the source of accomplishment—undeniable—imperative—
We present*

The Individual.

The Individual Alone . . .

Spends his time in self-analysis and discovery.

He is himself . . .

Engaging in a solitary search for

A feeling, an idea, a faith—

A personal integrity.

"I come to you to find myself. It is so easy to get lost in this world."

The Individual with Others . . .

*Joins in the lighthearted escapades
That are a big part of being young.
He knows companionship,
A sense of belonging,
The satisfaction that comes
From sharing his thoughts with his friends.*

*As one's involvement with others deepens,
He gains an understanding of the world around him.
In a group, the individual finds a purpose—
A place for himself—
An opportunity for self-expression.*

The Individual At Miller and Lanier . . .

Fits smoothly into the scheme of things,

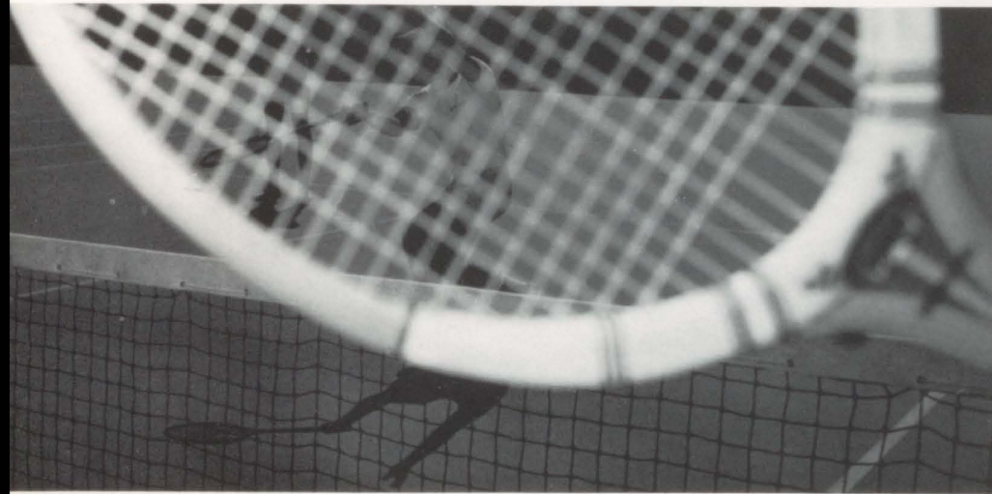

Actively participates,

Builds foundations for the future . . .

While always keeping his identity.

Some achievements merit special recognition,

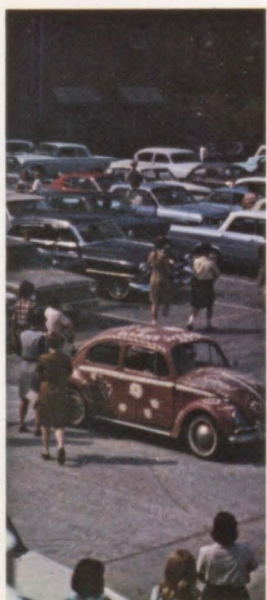

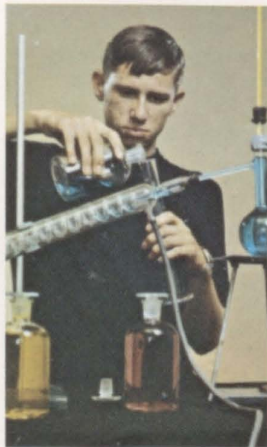

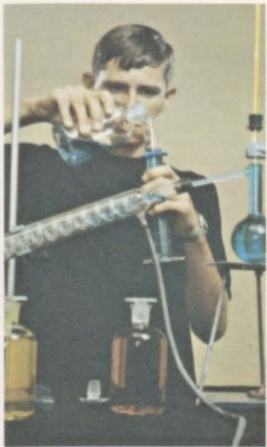

But each individual's contribution is important.

"An institution is the lengthened shadow of one man."

Miller and Lanier are lengthened shadows . . .
Given strength and direction by the individuals
That are part of them.
Each person—spiritedly outgoing
Or quietly purposeful
Makes his contribution . . .
Individuals are Miller and Lanier.

The association . . .

A meaningful and necessary experience in sharing . . .

The pooling of talents, responsibilities, and fun . . .

Sacrificing some individuality, perhaps,

But gaining incomparable advantages

Of individual effort multiplied by cooperation.

A school's clubs are necessary to its life . . .

They are indispensable.

"It is rendering mutual service to men of virtue and understanding to make them acquainted with one another."

Students Receive Honors

As always, Miller and Lanier were well represented in the academic area this year. Miller's four National Merit Semifinalists are numbered among the top students of the nation on the basis of their scores on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. An outstanding honor is the title of Best Citizen, awarded annually by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Equally important are our Stat Students, who are selected each year from their College Board scores and academic record. Miller and Lanier sent eleven participants to the 1968 Governor's Honors Program. These students won the opportunity to spend eight weeks on the Wesleyan campus pursuing a selected field of interest with 400 other top students of Georgia.

CAROL ANDREWS—A perceptive and refined young lady endowed with intellectual acumen. Her keen mind and quiet wit constitute a winning combination.

Senior

BRUCE GORDY—Bruce Gordy's dynamic play on the basketball court is a strong contrast to his quiet manner and unassuming intelligence in the classroom. Always willing to help friends or school, Bruce certainly qualifies as a superlative of his class.

DOUG EDWARDS—Doug owes his popularity with his classmates to his dry wit and winning personality. His intelligence and cheerful disposition add to his merits for the title of Lanier Superlative.

Superlatives

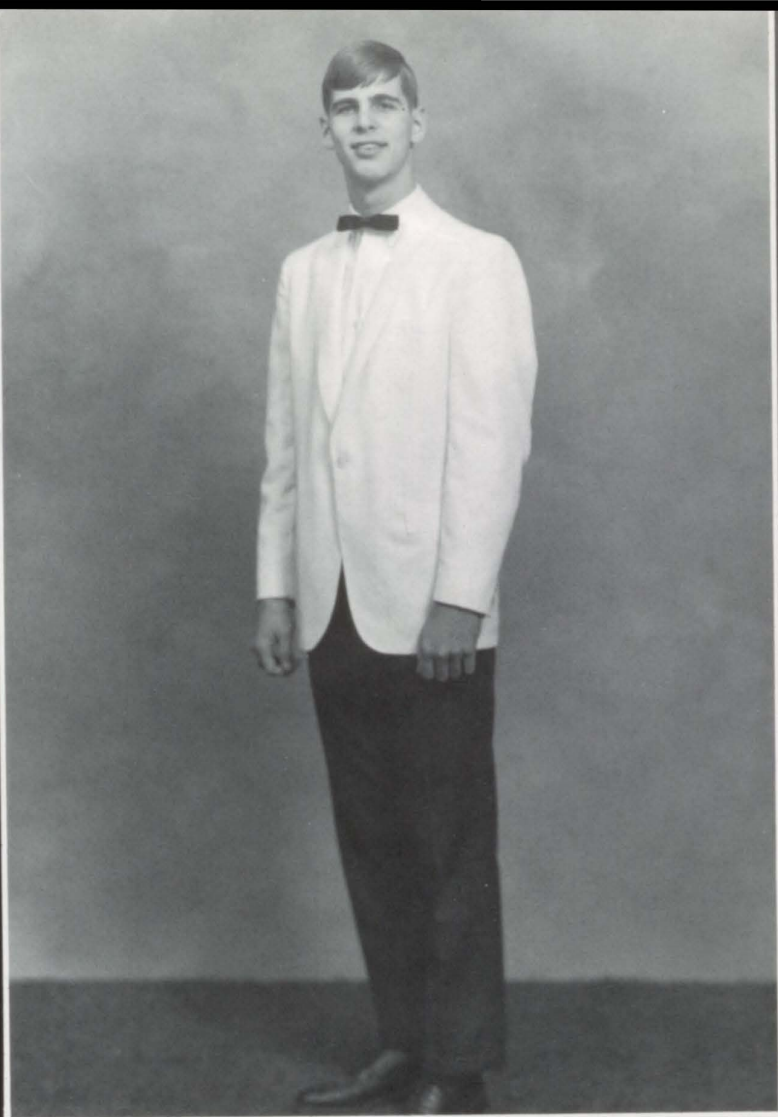

BETH AVRET—She relates to her peers and yet commands their respect, aptly utilizing her innate capacity for being at once a friend and a leader.

CHUCK HEARD—Always cheerful and amiable, Chuck Heard stands out in any group. He has won deserved recognition on the football field and the basketball court for his athletic feats and honors for his academic accomplishments in the classroom.

Senior

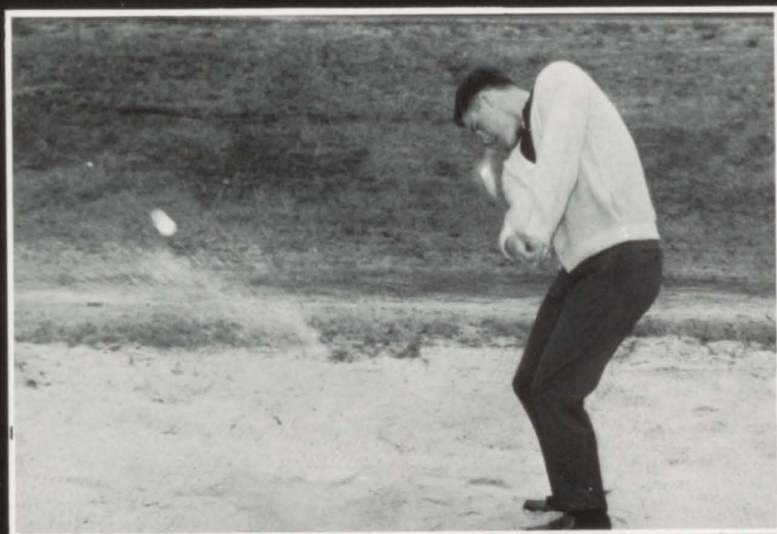

BONNIE BARNES—Most outstanding for her congeniality. Outgoing and companionable, she has won the commendation and friendship of her classmates.

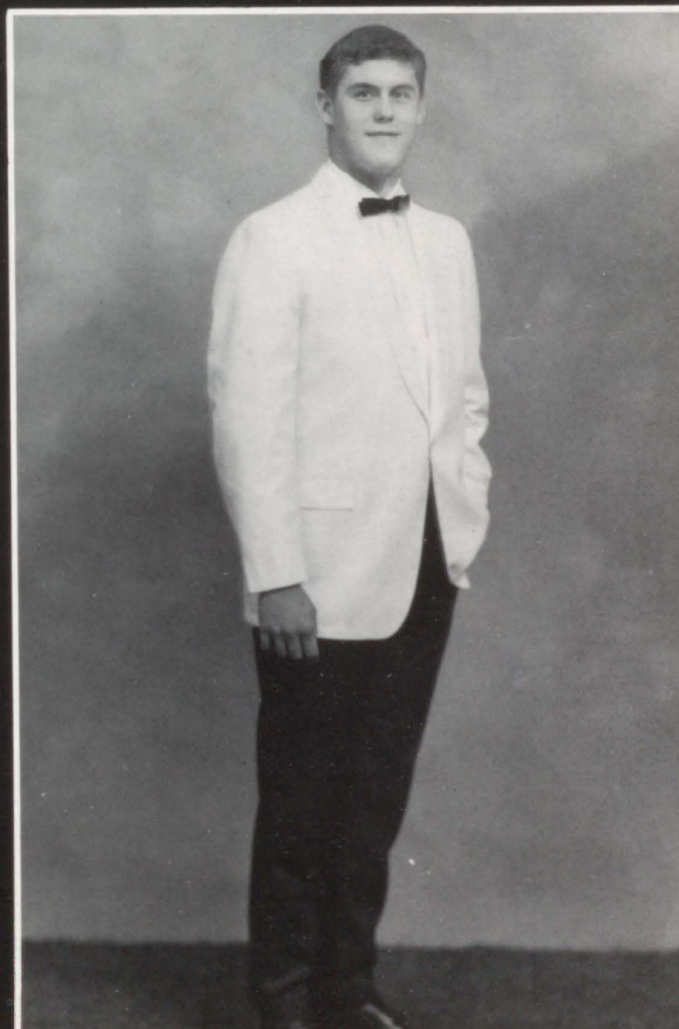

BETTY CAUSEY—A dry wit saturated with spirit and enthusiasm. With her perpetual mood of lighthearted tomfoolery, she is essential to the Spirit of '68.

Superlatives

HARRIS HINES—Harris Hines has been a Lanier star both on and off the gridiron. The true spirit of Lanier has been reflected in his attitudes of good sportsmanship and in his efforts as a student.

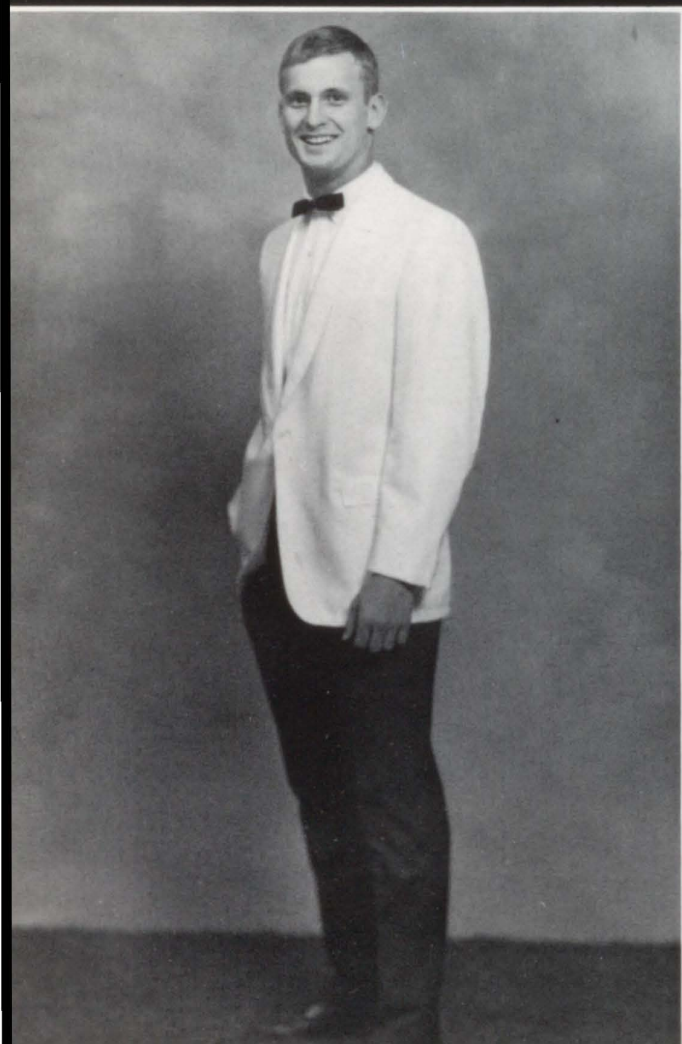

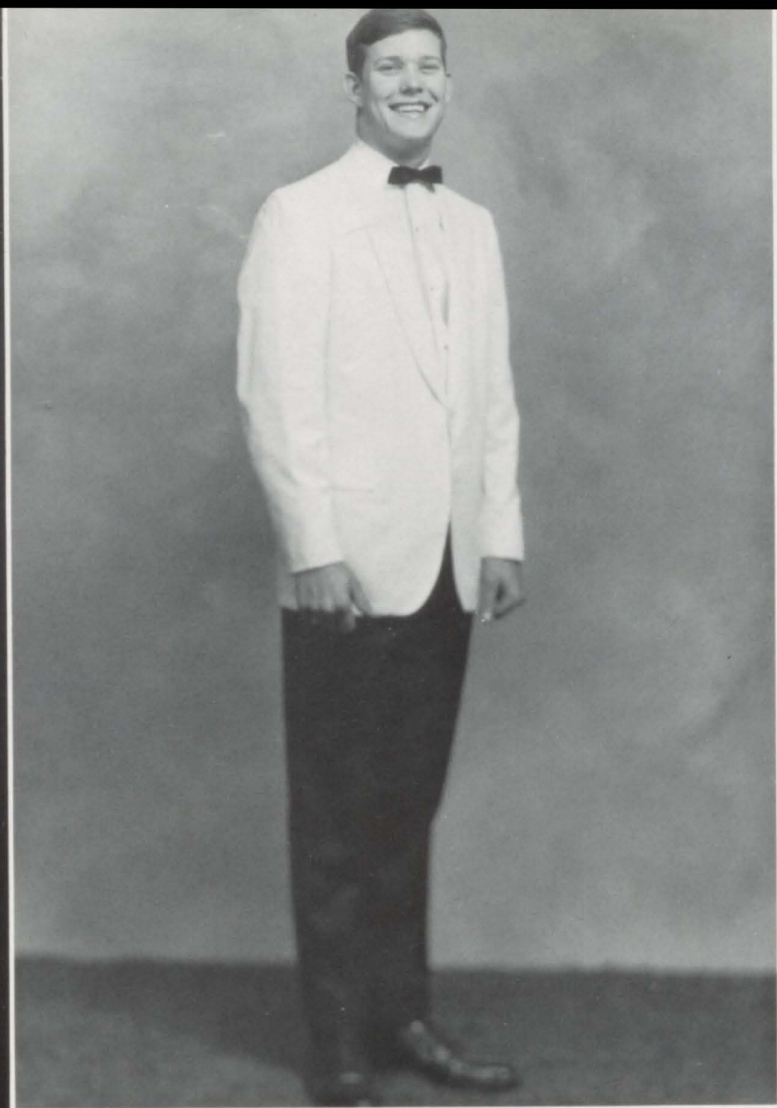

ELAINE ERWIN—A connoisseur of living-mature, alert, independent. An individual who pursues a diversity of interests without neglecting the inner self.

Senior

MIXON ROBINSON—His modesty and quietness have drawn the respect of all around him. Mixon has excelled in all his roles: scholar, athlete, leader.

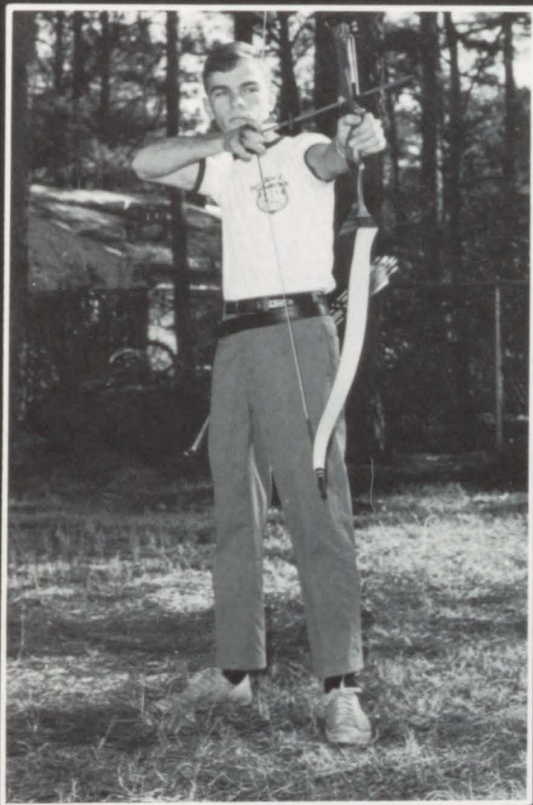

SANDY JONES—Dependability is synonymous with Sandy Jones. A gift for leadership, a devotion to duty, and a respect for others have marked him as an ideal Lanierian.

Superlatives

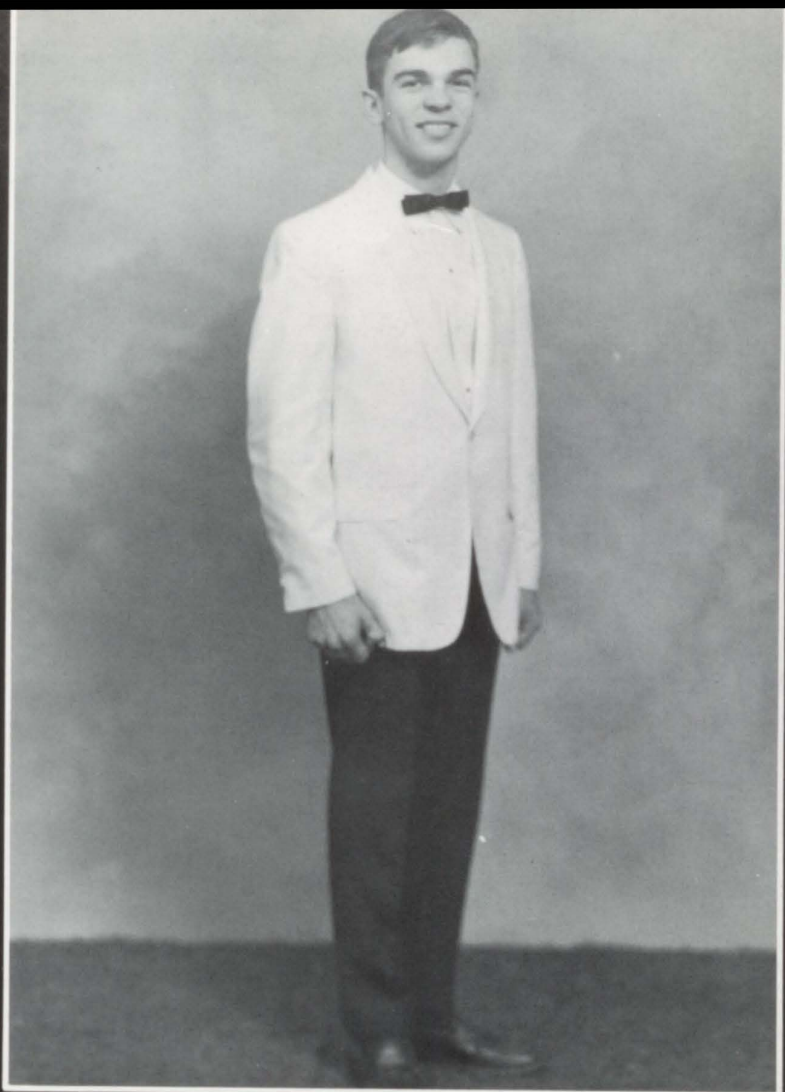

CLAIRE HODGES—A charmer. A disarmingly child-like humor coupled with an ebullient, warm-hearted nature makes her company a pleasure.

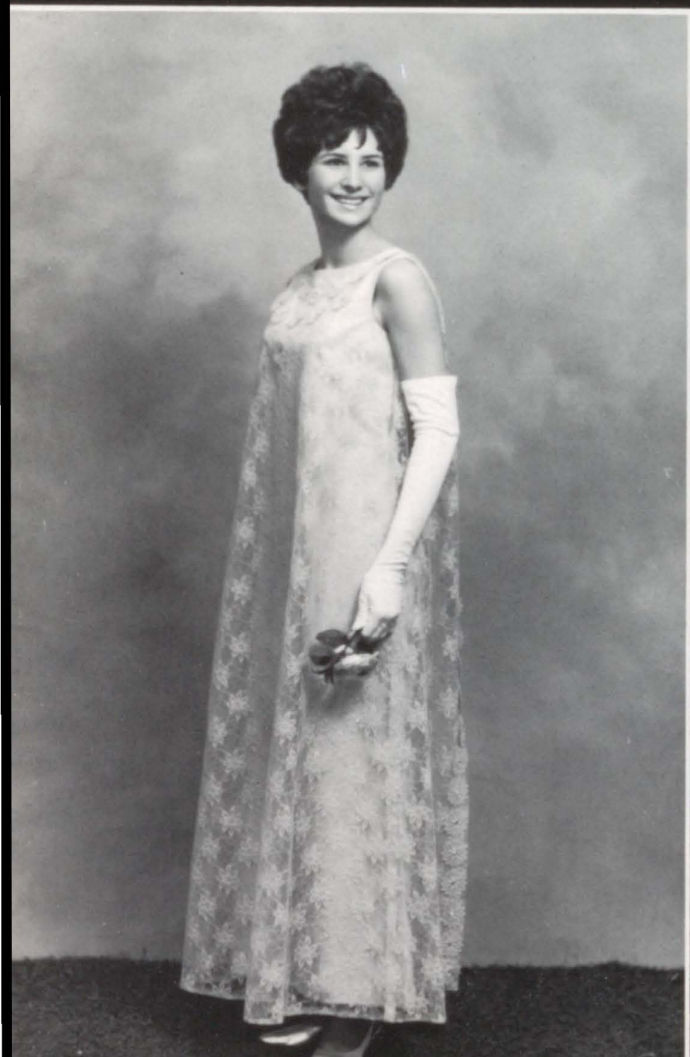

PEYTON QUARLES—Intelligent, skillful, and resourceful, Peyton has earned the distinction of being considered superlative by his classmates. With the use of his journalistic talents and leadership ability, Peyton has not failed in his service to Lanier.

Senior

GAYLE OLIVER—Entering wholeheartedly into each of her activities, she typifies an ideal blend of bouyant enthusiasm and down-to-earth sincerity.

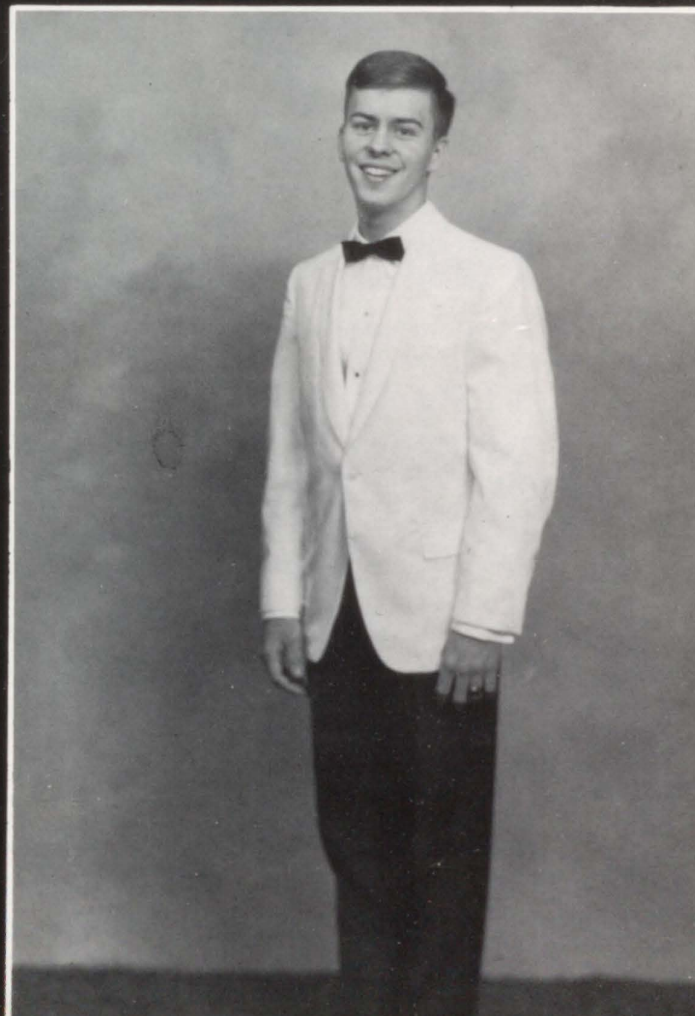

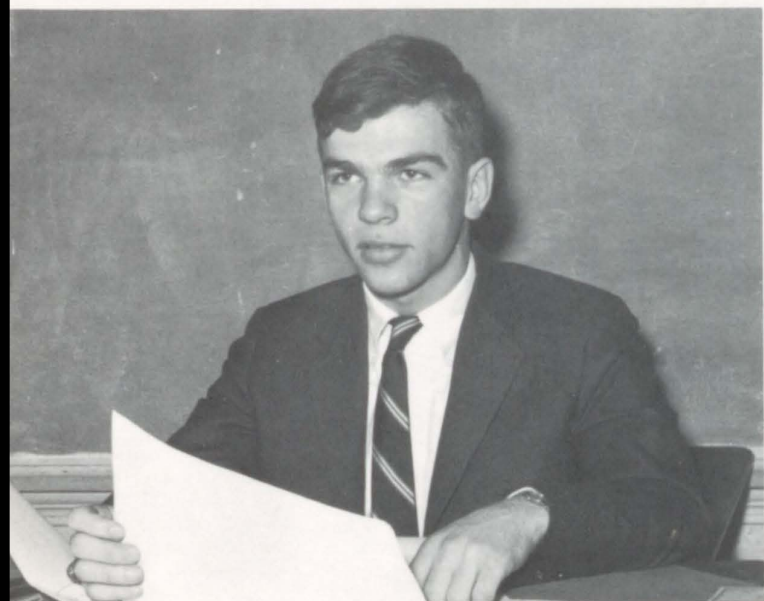

KAREN WILLIAMSON—An activator, she sets into motion the spirit and drive of the Senior Class. A meticulous concern in her dealings exemplifies her goal of striving for and attaining the best.

Superlatives

GRAHAM THORPE—Ever smiling with that Thorpe smile, Graham epitomizes the fun-loving student. Underlying his carefree nature is the ability to take charge in any demanding situation.

Military Editor—Hugh Hudson

Sports Editor—Walter Bush

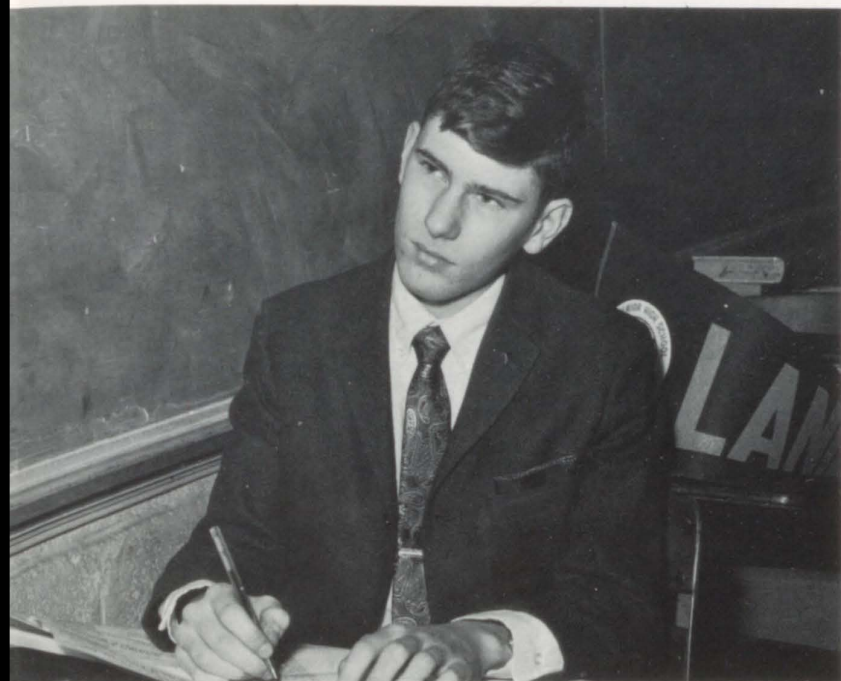

Editor-in-chief—Tommy Gillespie

The Poet Leader

To produce a good newspaper is simple. It requires hard work, long hours and a nose for news. To produce a great newspaper like the Poet Leader requires much more. It calls for a dedicated staff who are willing to put more into their work than required; they must have a sense of duty to the school and a willingness to represent the facts.

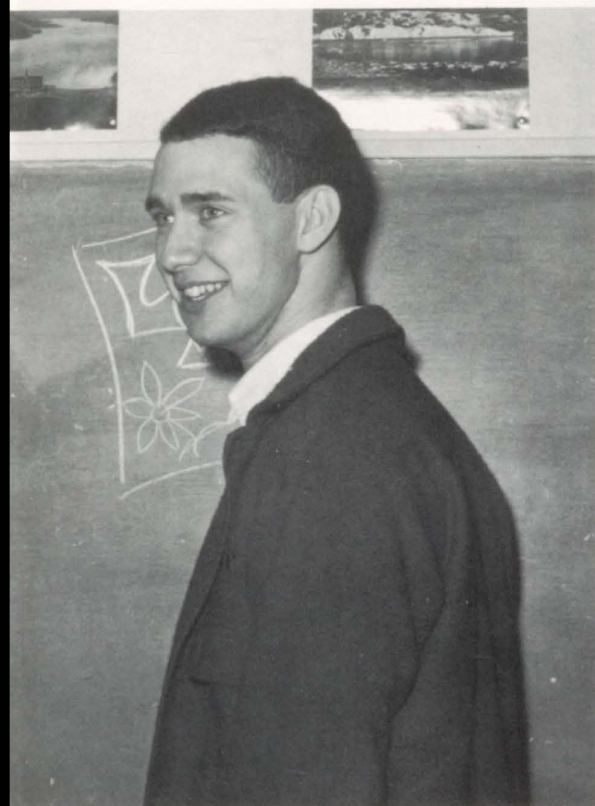

This year the staff has printed one of the best newspapers the school has ever produced. Excellent coverage of the news, hard-hitting and timely editorials, and good photographic coverage have been the rule of the newspaper. The paper has consistently endeavored to represent the students side in all controversial issues. The 1967-68 Poet Leader has continued to live up to the school motto, "We Lead."

Beta Club

No higher honor can be achieved by the student than membership in the Beta Club. The purpose of the Lanier Beta Club is the promotion of honesty, service, leadership and scholarship.

Interest in the various professions is promoted by inviting representative speakers to the meetings. Thus, in addition to recognizing scholarship, the club meets practical needs of the participating student.

President—Jim Purvis

Treasurer—Hugh Hudson

Vice President—Sandy Jones

Secretary—Bruce Gordy

Library Club

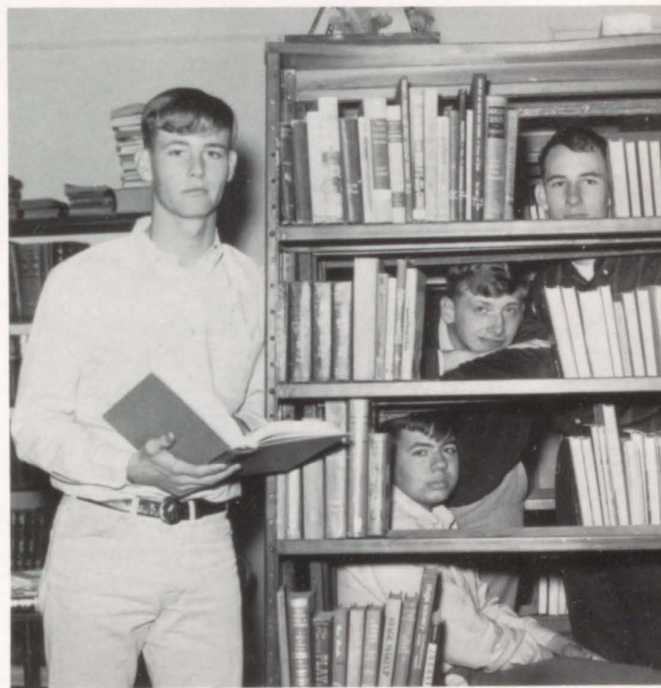

The Lanier Library was located in a military classroom this year. The members of the Library Club faced a great challenge in helping Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. McKelvey serve the student body under such difficult circumstances and in such cramped quarters. The club members were kept busy shelving two thousand new books. They found time, however, to take field trips, to attend the meeting of the Georgia Association of Library Assistants, to plan the annual Christmas party, and to enjoy a year-end picnic.

President—Bucky Wood; Vice President—Gary Worsham; Secretary-Treasurer—Lawrence Sinclair

Chess Club

Students join the Chess Club primarily for entertainment. This ancient game of skill helps to develop concentration while providing the player with the challenge of defeating his opponent. The club sponsors a tournament during the school year to determine the club champion.

President—Larry Meade; Assistant—Christy Bass, Bobby Rader, Morris Eipert

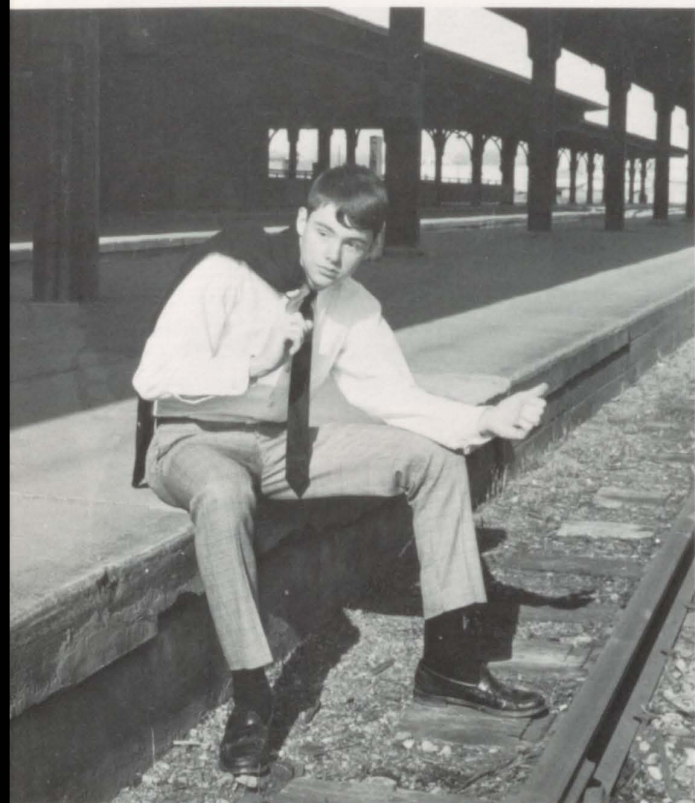

Demosthenians

The primary task of the Demosthenian Literary Society this year has been one of reorganization. A new advisor and new officers have laid the foundation for future work. This club is devoted to developing oratorical skill and improving personal expression.

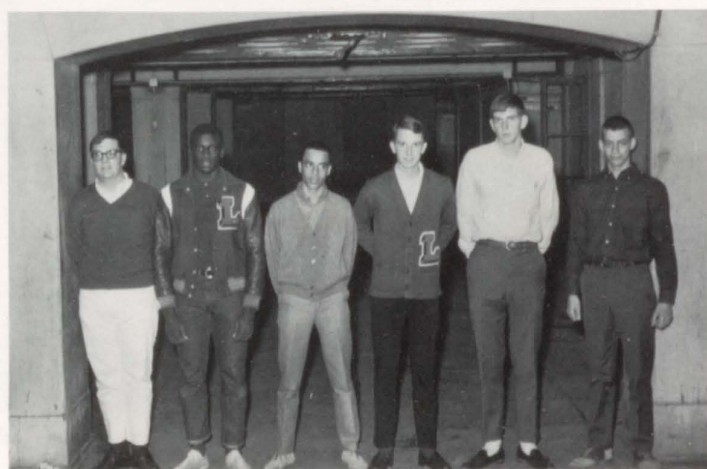

President—John Taylor; Vice President—Mike Carpenter; Chaplain—Phil Harshaw; Treasurer—Shelton Sanford

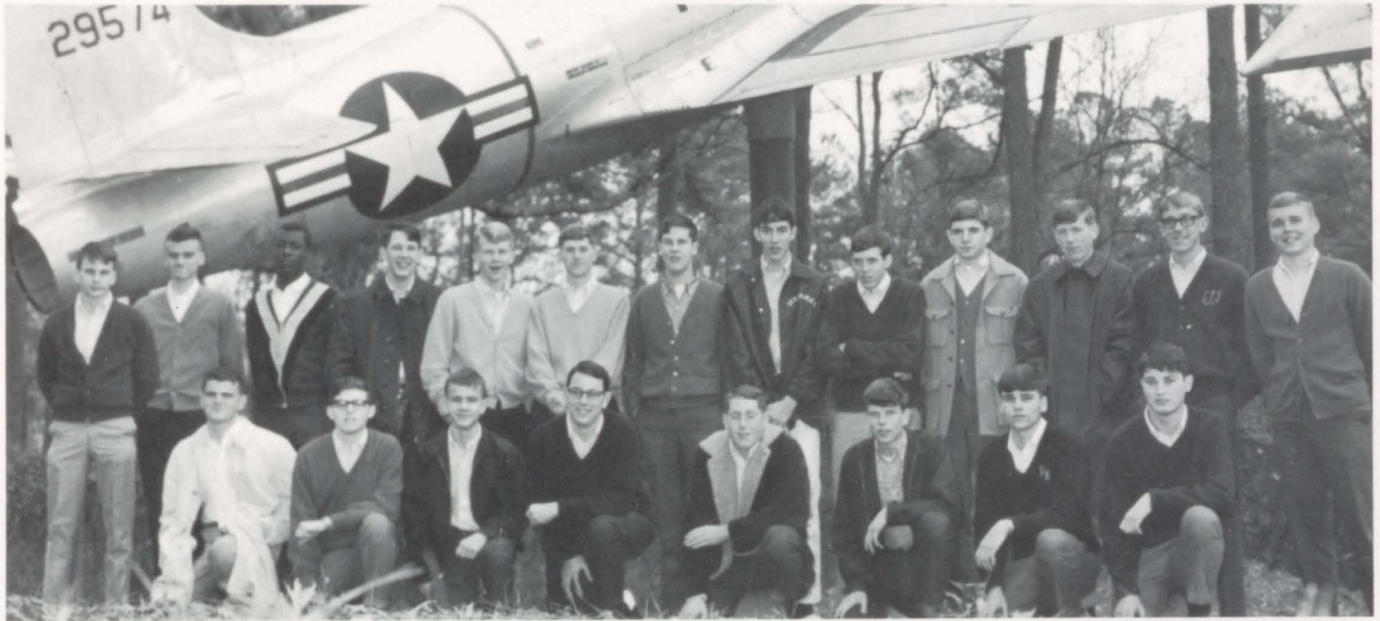

President—Verne Hoyt

Dramatic Arts

The Dramatic Arts Club has promoted an effective and interesting program during the current school year. Expanding its activities to include many different areas—literature, the theatre, music, art, and criticism,—it has captured the attention and participation of many Lanierians.

French Club

Learning is not limited to the classroom. Reading comprehension, conversational skills, and grammar are studied during class sessions; French Club meetings provide students with the opportunity to learn about French people—their history, their culture, and their way of life. Lectures at club meetings included a French chef and tourists to France. Slides were used to illustrate the lectures.

Vice President—Chuck Heard

Secretary-Treasurer—Russell Bryant; President—Peyton Quarles

History Club

The fascinating realm of United States government and history is brought to the student's attention through the activities of the History Club, which allows the student to expand his knowledge of his country and her government beyond the limits of classroom discovery. Such clubs produce better students by producing better citizens.

Military Review

The Military Review brings the military life of Lanier into sharper focus than the annual can possibly do. In its pages are recorded in detail the personnel and activities of the Lanier ROTC Brigade. This publication gives cadets well-organized and complete coverage of the military events of the year.

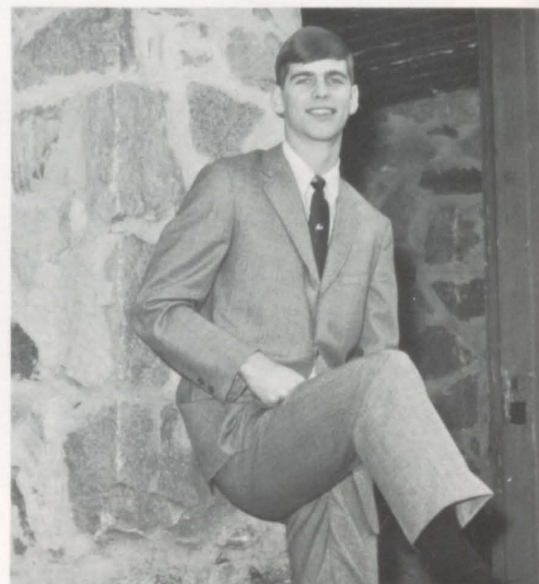

Secretary-Treasurer—Bill Martin

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y strives to teach students the ideals of Christian character by promoting Christian fellowship among its members. Through interaction with other Hi-Y clubs members gain new insight and inspiration as they meet other students who have the same goals.

The club also seeks to promote school spirit, participates in the March of Dimes Drive, and attends the Christian Life Conference in the spring. Representatives from the club attend the annual Youth Assembly in Atlanta.

President—Chuck Heard

Vice President—Graham Thorpe

President—Randy Gordy; Vice President—Rusty Wynn; Secretary—Whit Robinson; Treasurer—Peyton Quarles

Key Club

The Key Club of Lanier exists to serve. Many needy families have been recipients of Key Club gifts of food, clothing and toys for children. As they unselfishly help others, the members strengthen their bonds of fellowship and grow in their appreciation of people and their needs.

President—Hugh Hudson; Treasurer—Junior Jones; Secretary—Doug Edwards; Vice President—Smitty Richards

Math Club

Membership in "Pascal's Witnesses" offers a challenging opportunity to mathematically talented Lanierians. Speakers in specialized areas and field trips increase the knowledge and interest of members. Testing and competition in math exams and tournaments provide proving grounds for the Lanier Math Team. Each year about twenty students participate in the club-sponsored Middle Georgia Math Championship. The climax of the club's activities for the year will be the annual trip to Cape Kennedy.

Physics Club

The Physics Club is unique; it is the only coed club at Lanier. Miller girls were allowed to take advantage of Lanier's physics classes and club activities this year because Miller's curriculum did not include physics.

Another first this year was the composition and adoption of a club constitution.

Activities of the club included field trips to Georgia Tech to observe physics demonstrations and to examine equipment in physics labs.

The club also rendered service to the school by aiding the Student Council in their drive for funds to purchase a public address system.

Advisor—Mr. Shadwick

President—Bill Garvin; Chaplain—Lee Gostin; Vice President—Roger Ward

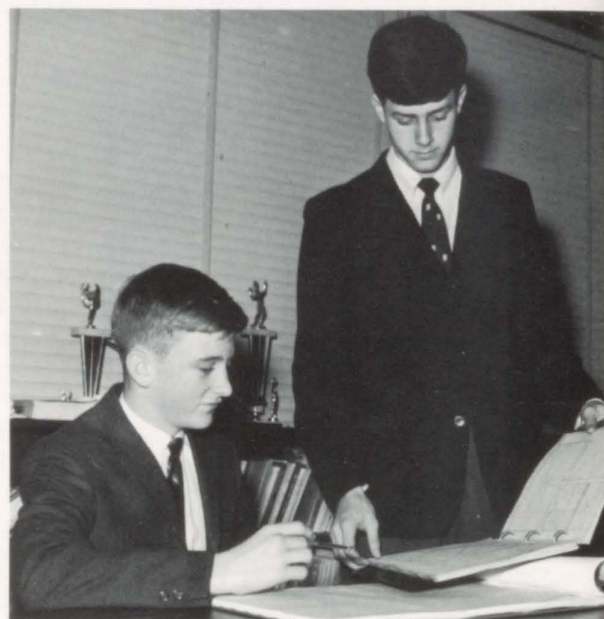

Red Cross

The Red Cross Club is another Lanier service club. It sponsors the annual Red Cross Drive to provide funds for worthy causes. This year's drive netted about $150 which was used to provide donations to the Macon Rescue Mission, the TB Association, the Red Cross Youth Fund, and the Lanier Library.

Vice President—Benny Sutton; President—Ralph Meadows

Annual Assistants

No publication can be completed without a staff of hard working assistants to aid the editors in their work. The junior annual assistants provide an important nucleus for the next year's editorial staff.

Science Club

The major responsibility of the Science Club is the promotion of the annual Lanier Science Fair. Fulfilling this important task sparks interest in science and provides practical experience through projects. As a result Lanier is well represented in the district and state fairs. In 1967 Lanier placed second and third in the district fair.

Other club activities included a field trip to the telephone exchange and guest speakers at regular meetings.

President—Steve Agee; Vice President—Roy Maddox

Spanish Club

Spanish Club members learn more about the language and customs of Spanish speaking people through club activities. Members provided Christmas toys for a Cuban family and enjoyed Spanish and Mexican food at their December meeting. Guests at later meetings included championship tennis players from Spain and Ecuador, participants in the international tennis tournament in Macon in February.

Vice President—Hugh Hudson; President—Graham Thorpe; Secretary—Wendy Barnes; Treasurer—Bill Martin

Business Staff

Every publication must be concerned with funds. A hard-working business staff provides money from the sale of ads and the sale of yearbooks to finance the Lanier annual. The fine quality of the annual each year is certainly dependent upon the efficient functioning of the business staff.

School Assistants

A school without a paper shop is like a factory without tools. Lanier students are provided with a handy source of supply in the school papershop. Thanks are due those boys who operate the shop so efficiently.

The counselor's office of a high school is always bustling with activity. At Lanier student assistants offer invaluable aid to the counselling staff by performing numerous tasks and running many necessary errands.

Representative—Steve Marshal; Parliamentarian—Larry Lineberger; Sentinel—John Chapman; Treasurer—Tim Hardy; Secretary—Frankie Parks; Vice President—Al Stokes; President—Ronnie Yarbrough.

FFA

The annual spring livestock show in May climaxed a successful year for the FFA Club. As always, the Lanier club was outstanding in the Georgia State Fair, winning many blue ribbons. An important project was the replacing of diseased trees in the school forest in Lizella.

4-H Club

The reorganized Lanier 4-H Club functioned for the first time in several years. Members sought to learn by doing; they stressed the development of leadership in each boy through community help projects.

President—Kenny Obenauf; Vice President—Phillip Maxwell; Secretary—Hiram Jones; Reporter—John Saikas

L Club

The lettermen of Lanier are truly a special group. The L Club honors the athlete who has worked long and hard to letter in his sport. Self-discipline and dedication mark this fine group of young athletes.

The group organized motorcades to football and basketball games and sponsored the annual L Club Banquet. This year's lettermen had the unique opportunity to purchase the cornerstone for the new Lanier Senior High School.

President Harris Hines, Vice President Bruce Gordy, and Secretary-Treasurer Keith Pinkston present the City Football Championship trophy to Mr. Wall.

Lanier Student Council

The worth of any organization is shown through its work, and the work of any organization can be accomplished only through the conscientious effort of its members.

Through the work of the Lanier Student Council, a school has been built in Pandora, India, but the work has not been limited to aiding others. Lanier students can be proud of the council's efforts in their behalf. This year Lanier's Homecoming Dance was the best ever. Throughout the year the council has arranged bus trips to out-of-town games, aroused spirit at the games, and raised money to buy Lanier a much needed public address system.

Even under the adverse conditions of this year, the Student Council has continued to represent the best interests of the student body.

Annual Staff Names

Sabers and Sashes

The pages of this yearbook reflect the months of drafting, writing, and photographing accomplished by nineteen individuals. Cropping pictures, editing copy, and writing headlines are menial but essential factors in producing a book of high caliber. The staff members worked overtime on every detail to present a well-organized, effective, and timeless annual.

SERVICE CLUBS FULFILL STUDENT NEEDS

Miller's activities are skillfully coordinated through the efforts of its service clubs. Heading the list, Student Council plans the year's calendar, heightens class and school spirit, and promotes good student-teacher relationships. School monitors save the administration much time by running errands and keeping records. Other service clubs include Red Cross, which sponsors the clinic; the Book Store, which sells much-needed supplies to both students and teachers; and Library Club, which keeps the library functioning smoothly. FBLA and FTA prepare their members for future careers, and Y-Teens help others through their many activities. Students are informed of all Miller and Lanier events by the Radio Announcers.

BETA CLUB RECOGNIZES THE SCHOLAR

The Miller Beta Club annually recognizes outstanding scholastic achievement at the tapping ceremonies. Girls are chosen on the basis of schoolwork, personality, and participation in school activities. As a service to the school, Beta guides are posted to help the parents at Open House. The highlight of the year is the Georgia Beta Convention held in Atlanta. The only academic club at Miller should be proud of its members and achievements.

ARTS CLUBS INSTIGATE CULTURAL ACTIVITY

Cultural enrichment at Miller? Some clubs were organized with this thought in mind. For example, Music Club offers programs on classics like Bach as well as such popular groups as the Washboard Band. Art Club members study visual art and its origin. The Dramatics Club sponsors the Pepper Pot yearly. FHA and Knitting Club train future wives for their duties. Every fall the Chorus and Orchestra give concerts for students and parents.

Inkwell

Through the work of the Inkwell staff, Millerites receive ten informative and entertaining newspapers yearly. The Inkwell is characterized by timely news articles and probing editorials. Our newest publication, the Dilettanti, attributes the magazine's success to the stories, poetry, and art work contributed by students. By selling ads and subscriptions, the annual business staff earns money for the annual. They also distribute the books when they arrive in May.

ATHLETIC CLUBS HEIGHTEN ENTHUSIASM

The Pep Club is organized to promote enthusiasm for Lanier's sports activities. Decorating the stadium is one way these girls increase spirit. MMA sponsors programs of interest to the athletic-minded. Tumbling teams and speakers highlight the year's meetings. Gym assistants are the brave girls in white whose menial but essential duties are taking roll call, leading exercises, and acting as whipping boy for the wrath of the gym department—both students and teachers.

Seniors Are Dominant in All Gym Activities

"Seniors are Dynamite!" . . . This sound shook the walls of the Miller gym throughout the year as the mighty Senior Class walked off with all the honors in sports events. Finally, the faculty managed to break the monotony by defeating the Seniors in volleyball. The Sophomores and Juniors were not to be forgotten, however, as both put forth their best in spirit and sportsmanship to give the Seniors some rough competition. Besides the team rivalry among classes, there were also individual tournaments in ping-pong, archery, and badminton to round out a year of fun, excitement, and hard work in the Miller gym department.

Audrey Ford puts power into a volley in the class match.

From elevated posts, referees keep watch on the game.

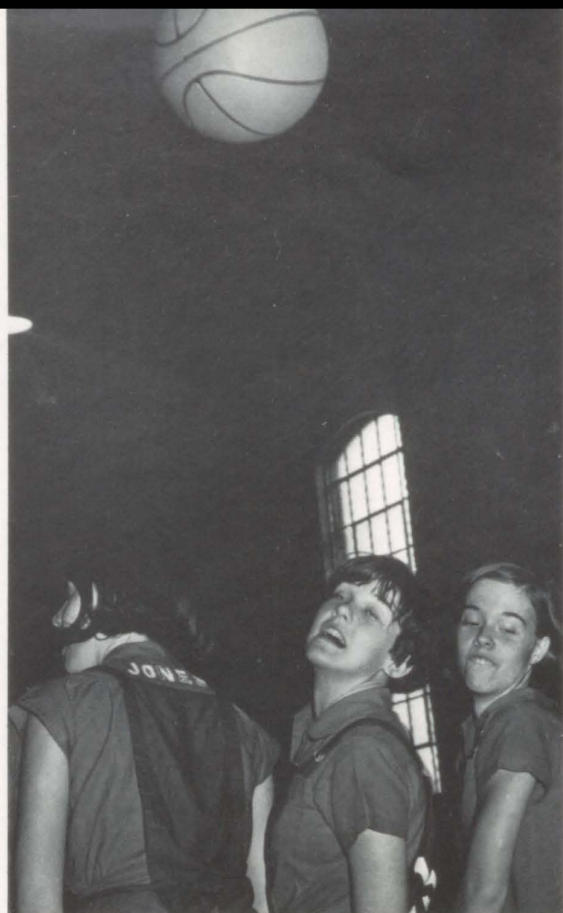

Lee swings valiantly from the floor.

Miss Jackson's girls are all smiles about their newly-won banner.

Oh, the horrors of speed-pin ball!

Tena Williams scores for the Seniors to Beth Sutton's dismay.

Triumphant Seniors leave the field in song after capturing the class championship.

The Championship Team was led by Head Coach Godfrey Steiner and Captains Mixon Robinson, Rex Putnal and Ricky Bússey.

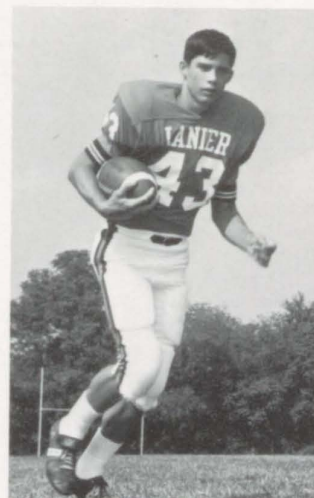

'67 City Champions

The Lanier Poets, under the direction of new Head Coach Godfrey Steiner, proved to be the best team Lanier has had in the past twelve years. The team finished the season with a very impressive 7—3 record, including wins over Mark Smith and Willingham, giving the Poets the Macon City Championship for the first time since 1959. Lanier finished fourth in powerful region 1-AAA. Both offensive and defensive teams always contributed 110% and never gave up. The powerful offense scored a total of 184 points, third in the region, and had a total rushing yardage of 1570 yards for a game average of 157 yards. The defense limited the opposing teams to 1264 yards all season. Despite numerous injuries to such key players as Chuck Heard, Mixon Robinson, Hugh Little, Rex Putnal, Donnie Robinson and Issac Jackson, the Poets displayed the true Lanier Spirit whether winning or losing. The 1967 Lanier football team will definitely be remembered as one of the most outstanding teams ever fielded in the history of the school.

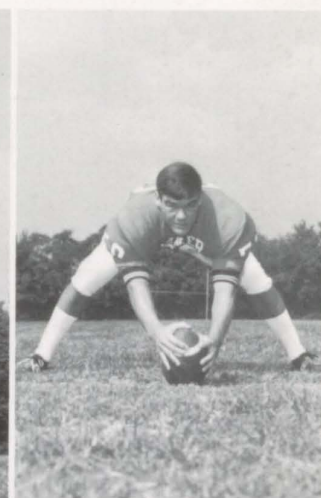

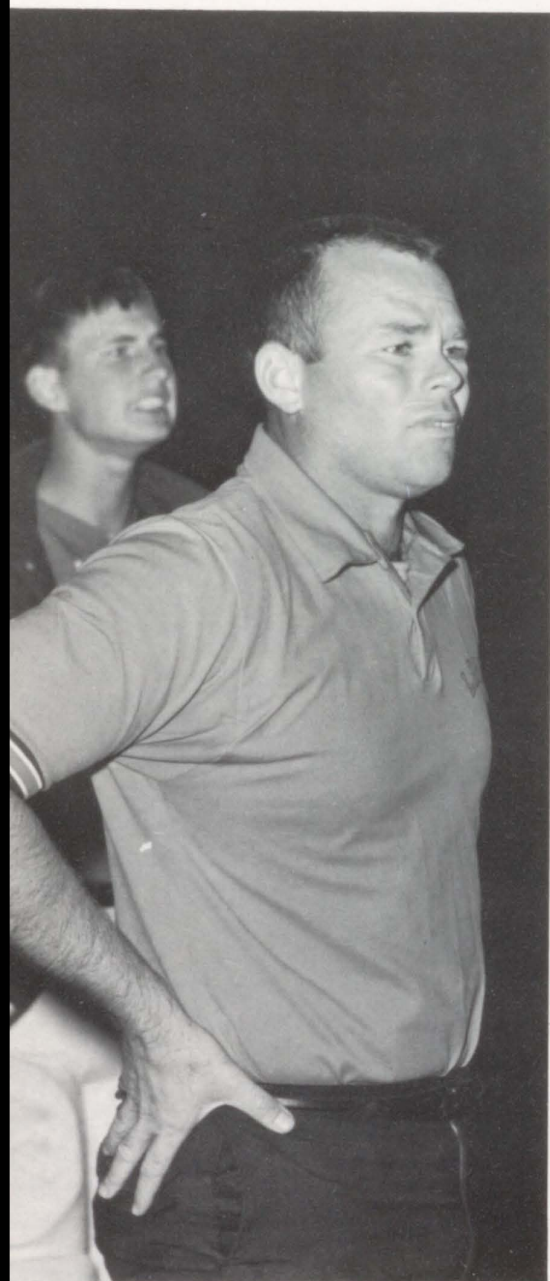

The Poets produced one of the most explosive offensive units in the region.

Lanier 22—Richmond 19

The Lanier Poets opened the 1967 season in style with a victory over Richmond Academy in Augusta, Georgia.

Richmond drew first blood in the opening quarter, driving 80 yards for the tally and the extra point. But it wasn't long before Rex Putnal drew revenge by passing to Mixon Robinson for the score. The PAT was missed. After taking a punt on the Richmond 45, Putnal ran for nine, passed to Chuck Heard to the 15, and then ran from there for the touchdown. Dunn's kick was good and the score was 13—7, Lanier. In the second quarter Richmond recovered a Lanier fumble and moved in for the score. The kick was wide and the half ended 13—13.

Another Lanier fumble cost the Poets six points; Richmond recovered and scored again. The conversion was no good, making the score 19—13. Putnal passed 69 yards early in the last stanza to Robinson for Lanier's last touchdown. The kick was low again and the score was tied, 19—19. Jamie Dunn, the big Poet tackle, came through for three points as he kicked a perfect 28 yard field goal, giving Lanier the needed margin for the win.

Putnal runs for a nine yard gain in the second scoring drive of the Richmond Academy game.

Lanier 27—Warner Robins 6

Calvin Cummings powered over three touchdowns, including an 80-yard punt return, to lead Lanier to a 27—6 win over the Warner Robins Demons.

The Poets wasted no time in scoring, for Putnal threw a 10-yard pass to Heard in the end zone. The score climaxed a drive highlighted by a 23-yard run by Isaac Jackson. Dunn kicked the extra point to make the score 7—0. After a scoreless second quarter, the Poets took the kickoff in the second half and moved 65 yards in five plays for the TD. Cummings scored from 11 yards out.

Warner Robins made its only touchdown after the kickoff, going the distance in three plays. The conversion attempt was missed. Late in the third period, Cummings took the Robins' punt on his own 20, faked to Putnal, and carried the ball 80 yards for the score. Dunn missed the kick and Lanier led, 20—6. But the Poets were not through with their scoring, picking up the final 6 points on an 81-yard march. Putnal ran and passed the ball to Jordan and Heard to move to the Demon 10. Cummings smashed over for the score. Dunn split the uprights, and the game ended 27—6.

Little and Pinkston make a stop to halt the Richmond Academy scoring threat.

Jordan blocks for Putnal as he makes a 23-yard run during the Warner Robins contest.

A tense, dejected Poet team listens to second half instructions in the locker room.

Lanier 3—Moultrie 7

Lanier suffered its first defeat of the season when the Moultrie Packers unleashed an 81 yard pass play in the fourth quarter of a hard-fought defensive battle to beat the Poets 7—3. Lanier's lone score came in the second period when Dunn booted a 20-yard field goal.

Lanier thoroughly outplayed the Packers, getting ten first downs to Moultrie's five, and getting 101 yards rushing to Moultrie's 81. Neither team could move the ball in the first period, and it changed hands twice before Lanier drove to the Moultrie 24 as the quarter ended. The Poets got to the 20 but were stopped by the Moultrie defense. Dunn kicked his field goal for Lanier's only score of the night.

The remainder of the first half was a kicking duel, with neither team getting more than one first down.

Lanier almost reached the Moultrie goal early in the fourth, but lost the ball on a fumble at the Packer's 17. Two plays later Moultrie unleashed its aerial bomb for 81 yards and the score to give them a 7—3 edge over the Poets.

Lanier almost made it within scoring distance late in the fourth period as they reached the Packer 20, but the Moultrie defense held, and the final quarter ended with the score still at 7—3.

Lanier 27—Columbus 46

Rex Putnal, passing for three touchdowns and catching a pass for a fourth, was not enough to outscore the Columbus Blue Devils as they defeated Lanier 46—27.

A game that some thought would be a defensive battle turned out to be a wild scoring melee as Columbus outpassed and outran Lanier to soundly defeat the Poets. Lanier touchdowns were made by Robinson on a 54-yard pass from Putnal, a 36-yard pass to Heard, another pass to Heard from the 9, and a 25-yard toss to Putnal from sophomore Mike Faulk. Dunn kicked three extra points during the game.

It was during this game that standout end Chuck Heard was seriously injured with a ruptured spleen. Rex Putnal received the "Back of the Week" award for the state of Georgia from AP for his superior performance.

Calvin Cummings eludes the Moultrie defense.

Heard takes a 15-yard pass from Putnal in the Moultrie game.

Lanier 7—Valdosta 0

The Lanier Poets outscored the Valdosta Wildcats 7—0 to defeat the former state champions and knock them from the ranks of 1-AAA unbeaten teams.

Rex Putnal, who was thought to be unable to play because of a leg injury suffered the previous week, came off the bench in two plays to set up the Poets' only score in the game. After receiving a 42-yard pass from Mike Faulk, Putnal threw a 45-yarder to Mixon Robinson for the touchdown. Dunn made the kick good and the Poets were ahead, 7—0.

The contest was largely a defensive battle, Lanier crossing the 50-yard line on only two occasions, but compensating by pushing back the Valdosta offense every time it made a scoring threat.

The game was highlighted by brilliant defensive play from several Poets, including Sandy Jones, Calvin Cummings, Mixon Robinson, Hugh Little, Ricky Bussey, and Harris Hines.

The victorious Poets carry Coach Steiner off the field.

Donnie Robinson gains for three against Dougherty.

Heywood takes the opening kickoff in Valdosta.

Lanier 41—Dougherty 7

The Lanier Poets displayed a magnificent offensive show to defeat the Dougherty Trojans 41—7 in the annual Homecoming contest at Porter Stadium. Lanier was led by Calvin Cummings who carried the ball 18 times for 219 yards and scored two touchdowns.

Lanier scored first when James Thomas intercepted a Trojan pass and brought it all the way back to the 5. Cummings took it over for the score, Dunn made the kick, and Lanier led 7—0.

Lanier kicked off, forced a punt, and took the ball in from their own 43 for the tally. Rex Putnal dashed in from the Trojan 18 for the second score. Dunn converted to make the score 14—0.

The third score was all Cummings as he set it up with a 25-yard run to the Dougherty 35, and then broke through from there for the TD. Dunn kicked true, and it was 21—0 at the half.

Bobby George set up the next score as he recovered a fumble on the 47 in the third period. Lanier went the distance in six plays with Putnal scoring from the five.

Lanier took advantage of another fumble as Rusty Kennedy recovered on the 23. Cummings took it to the one and Ronnie Jordan smashed through for the marker. Dunn did it again and Lanier led 35—0.

After the Trojans made their only score of the evening, Issac Jackson returned a kickoff to the 24-yard line. James Thomas drew in a Mike Faulk pass to complete the scoring 41—7, Lanier.

Gary Veal does the blocking as Putnal scores the second TD.

During the Tift County game Calvin Cummings sweeps end for a six yard gain.

Lanier 9—Tift 15

The Lanier Poets were defeated by the Tift County Blue Devils before an enthusiastic hometown crowd 15—9. The usually strong Poet offense was stymied gaining only 129 yards total rushing and passing, and picking up only five first downs.

Jamie Dunn seemed to be the only Poet who could do anything, accounting for all of Lanier's points with his 34-yard field goal and his touchdown run on a blocked punt.

The first quarter was a defensive punting duel; neither team could establish an offense. But in the second period, Harris Hines caught the Tift quarterback on the Tift 22 on fourth down. Lanier took over but failed to score the touchdown so they settled for Dunn's field goal. The second quarter was highlighted by Dunn's fumble recovery and TD. The half ended 9—0.

The second half was all Tift County as the Blue Devils cranked up their offense and pushed over 15 points while the Poets stood by and watched. The Lanier team could get only one first down in the entire second half and thus met their third and last defeat of the season.

Lanier 7—LaGrange 6

The Lanier Poets gained their fifth win of the season as they defeated LaGrange in that city for the first time in the school's history. Dunn's golden toe proved to be a winning margin when his extra point after Cummings' TD won the game.

Lanier took the opening kickoff but could not move the ball. The defense took over and forced a fumble which Keith Pinkston recovered on the LaGrange 30-yard line.

From there it took just four plays to cover the distance to the goal as quarterback Mike Faulk passed to Rex Putnal for gains of nine and eleven yards to the LaGrange eight. Cummings swept right end for seven to the one and got the score on a dive over the middle. Dunn split the uprights and the Poets led 7—0.

LaGrange came back in the second half and made some threats of its own. The only touchdown came on a recovered Poet fumble on the Lanier 49. It took eleven plays to make the score, but the Poets still prevailed with a one point lead when Rusty Kennedy blocked the PAT. As the buzzer sounded Lanier won 7—6.

Poets Beat Dogs 35—20

Lanier drew revenge from last year's defeat to Smith as they beat the Bulldogs 35—20. The Poets' big gun was quick moving Carlton Heywood as he broke loose for gains of 55, 45, and 14 yards.

The Bulldogs jumped off to an early lead in the contest when they managed to pick up a Lanier fumble on the Lanier 34 and carry the ball back to the 16. Two plays later six points were up and then the PAT was made to give Mark Smith its only lead of the game.

Cummings put the Poets in position for their initial score when he took the kickoff and rambled 37 yards to the Smith 39. It wasn't long before Mike Faulk completed a pass to Putnal who took it in for the score. Dunn split the uprights to tie it up 7—7.

The Poets scored again after an 88-yard drive which took nine plays. Cummings smashed through for the TD from the 1 yard line. Dunn's kick was good and Lanier led 14—7.

Lanier took over after Mark Smith tried a fake punt. Jordan ran for nine and Cummings went for five before two penalties put the ball on the three. Cummings took it in and Dunn kicked true to make it 21—7 at the half.

The Poets came back from their own 20 to score again as Faulk passed to Mixon Robinson to make the tally. Dunn's toe did it again and Lanier was on top 28—7.

After the Bulldogs scored to shorten Lanier's lead, Lanier came right back with a 49 yard drive that covered the distance in eight plays and was capped by Cummings score from the 12. Dunn kicked his fifth extra point of the night and the scoreboard read 35—14.

Smith scored one more time in the final 20 seconds but Ricky Bussey came through to block the PAT. The Poets won 35—20 and were on the way to the City Championship.

Heywood breaks loose for 55 yards.

The tough Poet defense stops the Dogs for little gain.

Cummings breaks through the line for 5 yards.

Poets Slam Rams 6—3

Lanier made it two victories in a row over archrival Willingham with a 6—3 victory before a capacity crowd in Porter Stadium. The game was expected to be a highly contested offensive duel, but turned out to be a hard fought defensive battle.

Lanier's big break of the night came in the second quarter after picking up a first down and driving to their own 44-yard line. The Poets punted to the Ram 25 before Alan McCoury fumbled on his own 32. Rusty Kennedy recovered to set up the scoring drive.

Cummings raced for 11 yards around right end on the first play and Heywood got 15 on a double reverse to the Ram 5. Cummings then blasted over for the score. Jamie Dunn missed the extra point twice, getting a second chance when Willingham was offsides on the first attempt.

The first period was a defensive contest with Willingham punting the ball three times and the Poets twice. The Rams got two first downs to Lanier's one and each team failed to penetrate the other's territory.

Lanier controlled the second period, but could get only one first down other than making the fumble pay off for the score.

The third stanza was much like the first until the final minutes when the Rams picked up a Lanier fumble and turned it into a field goal. The Rams managed to get down to the Lanier 20 before the Poet defense bottled them up and they had to settle for a field goal.

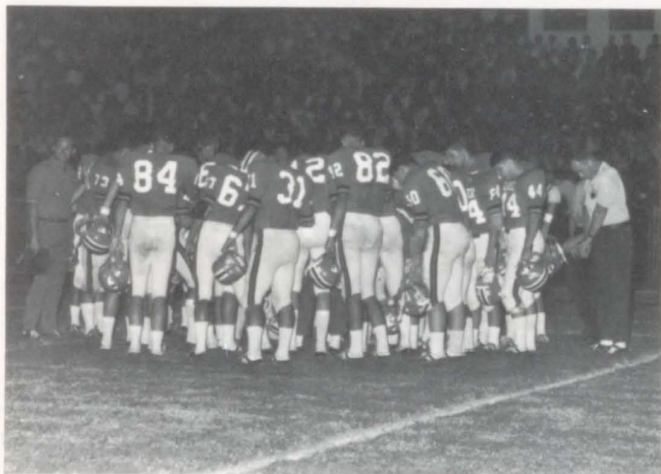

Lanier took the following kickoff and mounted a mild threat after two successive runs of 11 yards by Heywood put the Poets on the Willingham 40. The drive was killed on the next play when a penalty put the Poets back 15 yards.

As the dust settled, the scoreboard read Lanier 6, Willingham 3, and the Poets had won their second straight victory over Willingham.

The game was the climax of a week full of the spirit which can develop only during the Willingham week. Such things as the capture of the Ram and the guarding of the school greatly contributed to this spirit.

Cummings races for 11 yards to set up the Poet score.

The Poets hold pre-game prayer.

Sugar Bear Band

North Georgia's Camp Wahsega provided a proving ground for the 1967-68 version of the "Sugar Bears." This week of training enabled the band to perform some of the best half-time shows that Macon audiences have ever viewed.

Football season does not end the band's activities. A Christmas Concert at Westgate, a trip to the University of Georgia for Band Day, and a Spring Concert were some of the later activities. In February the rehearsal schedule was stepped up even more as the band prepared for another superior performance at the State Music Festival. Other activities for the year included pep bands for baseball season and numerous Honor Guards.

The "Fabulous Laurettes" and the "Dancing Major-ettes" were the pride of the band this year as they proved to be the greatest corp that the Sugar Bears have ever had to accompany them.

The Fabulous Laquettes

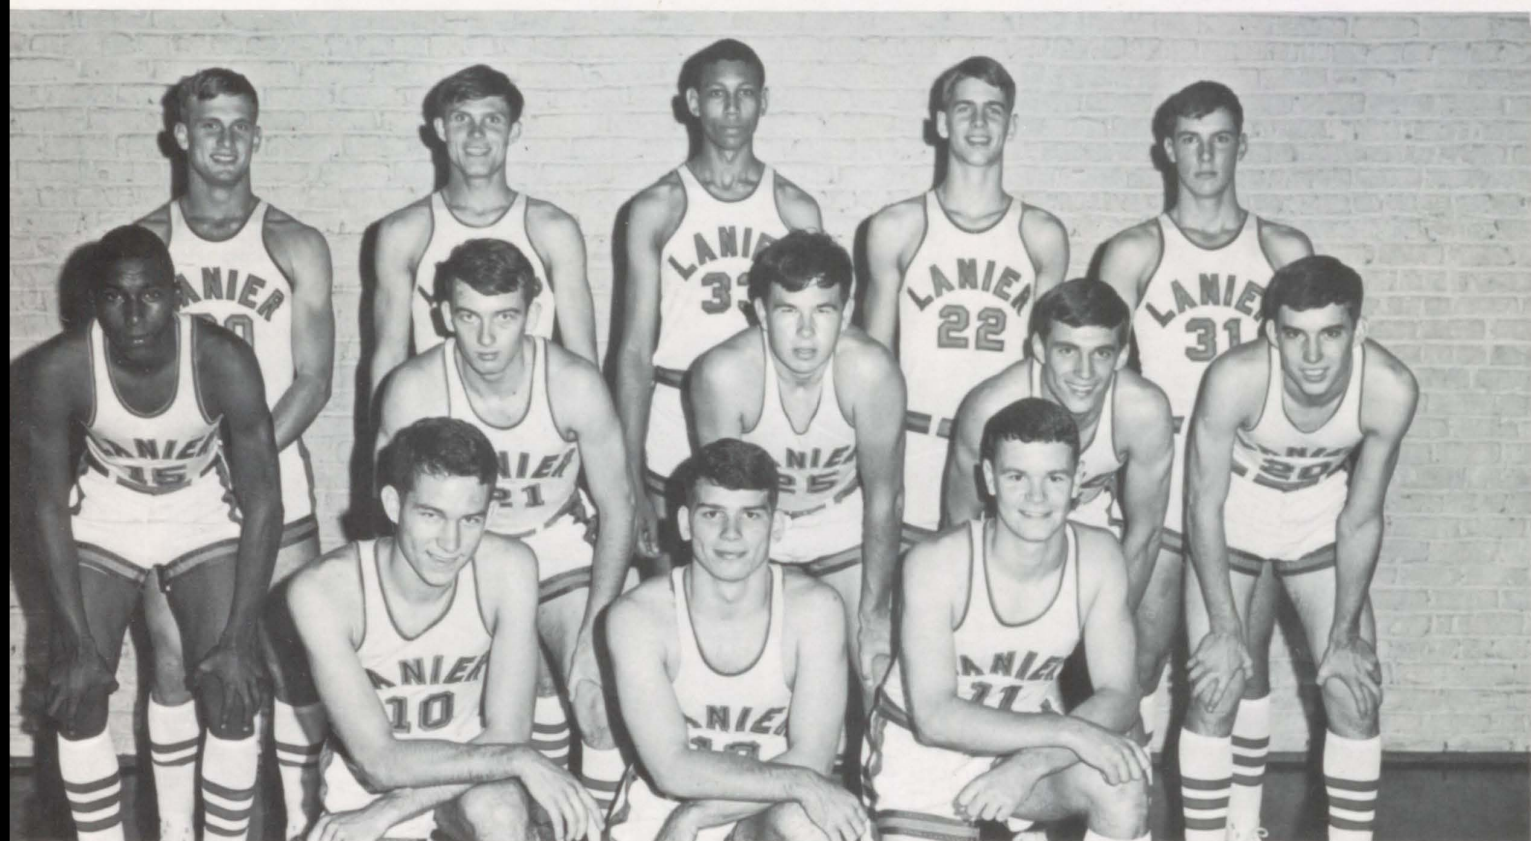

Basketball

The Lanier cage team this year has proven itself to be the most talented team ever fielded in the history of the school. A combination of experience, height, good shooting, depth and hustle has given them a fine season record of 21—1 in overall regular season play and a perfect 16—0 in region play. The only setback of the year was the defeat to Mark Smith 55—53 in the semi-finals of the Tom Porter Christmas Tournament. As always, the Poets took the City Championship with a record of 4—1, defeating Smith and Willingham twice. As an example of the fine depth of the Lanierians, they demolished Willingham by a margin of 50 points, 74—24, with the reserves playing most of the game. The Poets topped Region 1-AAA in defensive play, holding Tift County to 3 field goals in one game and allowing Willingham only 7 points in the second half. At the end of regular season play Lanier was ranked third in the state.

The Poets were led in the scoring department by seniors Bruce Gordy and Rex Putnal, who were almost always in the top five in Region 1-AAA scorers. Lanier's rebounder was big 6' 6" Gerald Lewis, who never failed to excite the fans by grabbing down rebounds and blocking shots. Juniors Bobby George and Marty Allman were very fine defensive men and are expected to lead the Poets to an equally successful season next year. Senior Chuck Heard and junior Steve Calhoun came off the bench several times during the season to give the Poets great support.

After the season Lanier looked forward to the sub-region tourney in Tifton, where they were almost certain favorites. They also looked hopefully to the region tournament in Columbus where again they were favored to win and go to the State in Atlanta.

Tennis

Experience and determination are the key words for Coach Landon Brent's 1968 Tennis squad. Experience comes easy to the Poet netters in the form of four returning lettermen from last year's squad. Johnny Harrison, Mike Tinkey, Bill Avirett and Mike Pearson came from a winning team last year and will make this season even better, if that can be done. Last year's squad went undefeated in region play and took a first place in Region I-AAA doubles and a second in the singles. Determination is a state of mind. Coach Brent, like the boys he has trained, is used to winning, and his determined drive will pull this fine team through for another successful year for Lanier on the courts.

Swimming

The swimming team is somewhat handicapped this year because of the double sessions. Coach Tom Close expected a dim year because junior high members were unable to practice with the team, but strong support from several sophomores gives the team excellent chances for next year. The team was led by sophomores Andy Flatt and Steve Morris. Other fine swimmers were Captain Jim Wright, Curt Clements, Joey Colwell, Sam Hollis, Steve Tanner, Richard Sorkness, Donald Penn and Larry Keene.

Baseball

The 1968 baseball team, under the leadership of new coach Gene Brodie, is expecting a good season. Pitchers Dennis Chambliss and Dennis Ingley figure greatly in the Poets' plans for a successful year. Several boys coming up from last year's B-Team, combined with the nucleus of last year's returning lettermen, give Poet fans high hopes for a winning team. Returning lettermen are Lou Wood, Doug Edwards, Mike Slover, Joel Willis, Rusty Wynn, Lee Bikus and Ronnie Jordan.

Track

Coach Richard Finley launched his track and field team into this year's season with "great expectations." His hopes lay not only in a dependence on seasoned track veterans, but also in first-year players.

Returning lettermen Joe Bost, Keith Pinkston, Gary Veal, Dan Odom, Scott Rowbotham, and Jamie Dunn will give the team a confidence only experience can bring. Calvin Cummings, Earnest Lester, Carlton Haywood, Ralph Clark, Mike Eremchuck, Royce Hayes, and Bill Thompson are the new members of the squad who will boost the team's chances for victory.

Golf

The Lanier golf team "swings" into another year of competition with hopes of bringing in another winning sport for Lanier athletics. Lanier Athletic Director and Head Golf Coach Godfrey Steiner will build his team around the four returning lettermen from the previous year's squad. Veterans Harris Hines, Ed Hogan, Albert Swann and Sandy Giles hope to combine their efforts to find the magic formula for victory that will make complete an already fine year for the Poets.

Administration

The disastrous April fire that burned the historic Lanier Senior High building thrust the Administration into a seemingly impossible position. Two men faced this challenge and very successfully organized and oriented the student body and faculty into its new situation. The Principal, Mr. Wall, and the Assistant Principal, Mr. Middlebrooks, are to be highly commended for their accomplishments in maintaining a normal school with double sessions in the junior high. Their leadership ability has been tried to an extreme and proven to be an outstanding example of the Lanier motto, "We Lead."

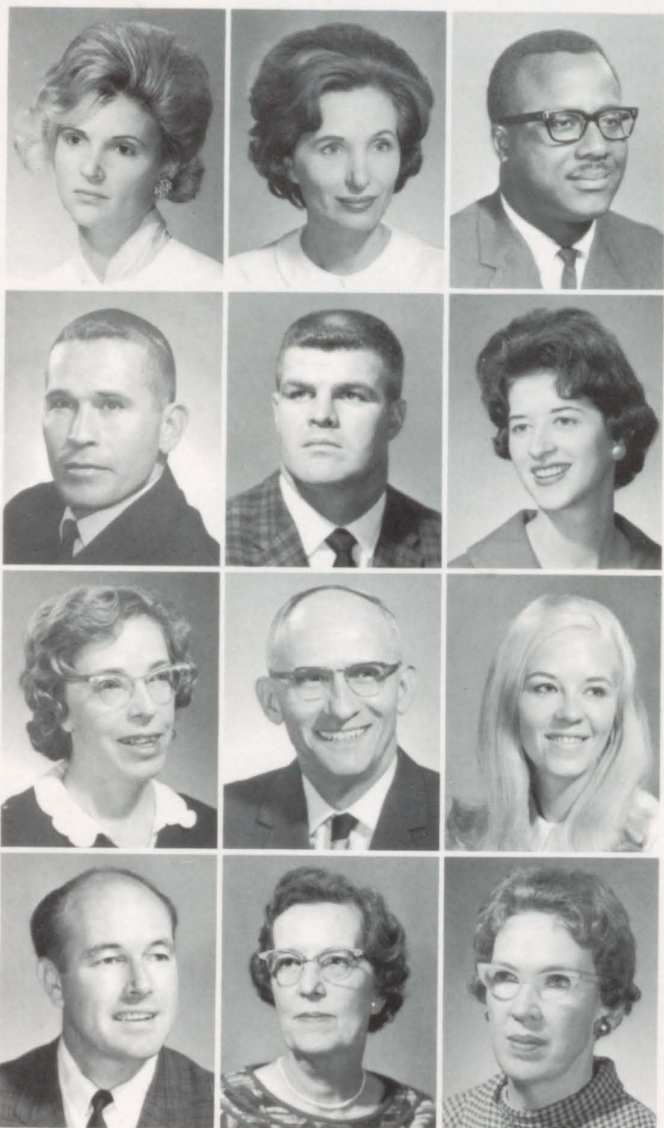

Amidst the ruins Mr. Wall envisions a new beginning for the old Lanier.

Liberal Arts

The faculty of Lanier realizes the importance of educating the whole individual. The Liberal Arts program, including English, Psychology, Foreign Languages, Social Studies, and Art, provides students with the opportunity to build a foundation for a better life. Developing self-expression, deepening understanding, and facilitating communication are the principal goals of those who teach in these fields. When mastered, these skills will enable each individual to more intelligently choose the field in which he wishes to invest his time and talents.

Sciences

The age of space ships, missiles, rockets, computers, and satellites demands that young Americans be skilled in the sciences. Lanier's Science Department affords each pupil an opportunity to learn basic and advanced skills in biology, physical science, chemistry, physics, and mathematics. Students perform experiments, solve problems, and observe natural phenomena to gain needed scientific knowledge. Any Lanier student may reach a plane of achievement from which he can launch into specialized studies in the many areas of science.

Numerous students representing the Science Department of Lanier have earned various honors in competition at both the Middle Georgia Science Fair and the Georgia Science Fair held annually at the University of Georgia. These individuals have brought deserved recognition to themselves and their school.

Vocational Training

At Lanier, classes in typing, bookkeeping, and shop give the future businessman or skilled worker the training he requires to initiate a successful career after graduation. Those who plan to follow agricultural pursuits may study and experiment in the classroom and further their knowledge through the activities of the FFA.

Staff

Although many of their resources and all of their working space were consumed by the fire, an efficient and well-trained staff of counselors and librarians continue to fulfill the need of each individual for guidance in choosing a course of study and aid in learning proper research techniques and good reading habits.

The school secretary and dietician have also rendered invaluable service to Lanierians. Under extremely adverse conditions they have maintained an efficient office and orderly lunchroom.

The 1967-68 faculty and staff of Lanier have refused in the face of difficulty to relinquish the ideal of educating well-rounded individuals.

ADMINISTRATION

Miller Faculty Is Led by an Outstanding Individual

Since 1962 Miller Senior has advanced under the leadership of our principal, Miss Clara Nell Hargrove. Dedicated to Miller and its traditions, Miss Hargrove is the paragon of efficiency. Her enthusiasm is reflected by teachers and students alike.

Versatility and Miss Hargrove are synonymous. Whether she is planning a curriculum, making schedules, or supplying the faculty volleyball team with energy, she is interested in the arts and current events, as well as all facets of education.

Miss Hargrove taught Latin, English, and history and served as principal of Miller Junior before coming to Miller Senior. During the course of her career, she has acquired a keen insight into the needs of the individual. She personifies the ideals of high moral principle and academic achievement. Each Miller student is more cognizant of her own potential through the example set by our principal.

Miller salutes Miss Hargrove for being "Nulli Secundus," second to none.

Miss Clara Nell Hargrove—
Principal

Miss Hargrove welcomes parents to Open House.

Miss Hargrove's interest in students is seen as she discusses many school activities with Beth Avret, Student Council President.

"Date due: December 21, 1962!?!?"

Industrious Staff Operates Efficiently

The capable team of Hargrove and Sullivan combine friendship and leadership with the routine of running a school.

Languages Provide a Means of Expression

The language teacher unlocks the door to an unfamiliar but exciting world . . . a world of new sounds, new words, and new ideas . . . through her, the student gains new insights . . . finds another way of expressing his thoughts . . . communication becomes possible.

Mrs. Robinson, did you know there are 62 steps to the basement?

Camera-shy, Mrs. Lawless?

Good morning, Mrs. Lamon!

"Sock it to 'em, 102!" exclaims Miss Jackson as she and students cheer 102 to victory in the Supervision Volleyball Championship Game.

"I may not approve of her, but she is French."

Mrs. Gillespie is never too busy to lend a helping hand.

The discipline of the military . . .

Providing the individual with immediate, demanding goals . . .

He finds a sense of pride in being a part . . .

A sense of achievement.

The agony of endless drilling

Results in precision,

Respect for authority,

And the satisfaction that comes from meeting strict standards.

"... to instill discipline and thereby respect for constituted authority, to develop patriotism and to encourage a high sense of personal honor and deportment."

Editor's Epilogue

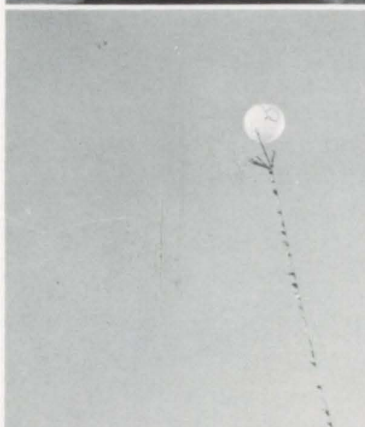

The school year 1967-68 belongs to history. It has passed from reality into memory. For all of us on the staff, there are special memories . . . of pictures scheduled and rescheduled because of bad weather . . . of endlessly editing copy that just wouldn't fit . . . of scores of meetings that started in summer . . . and ended in February.

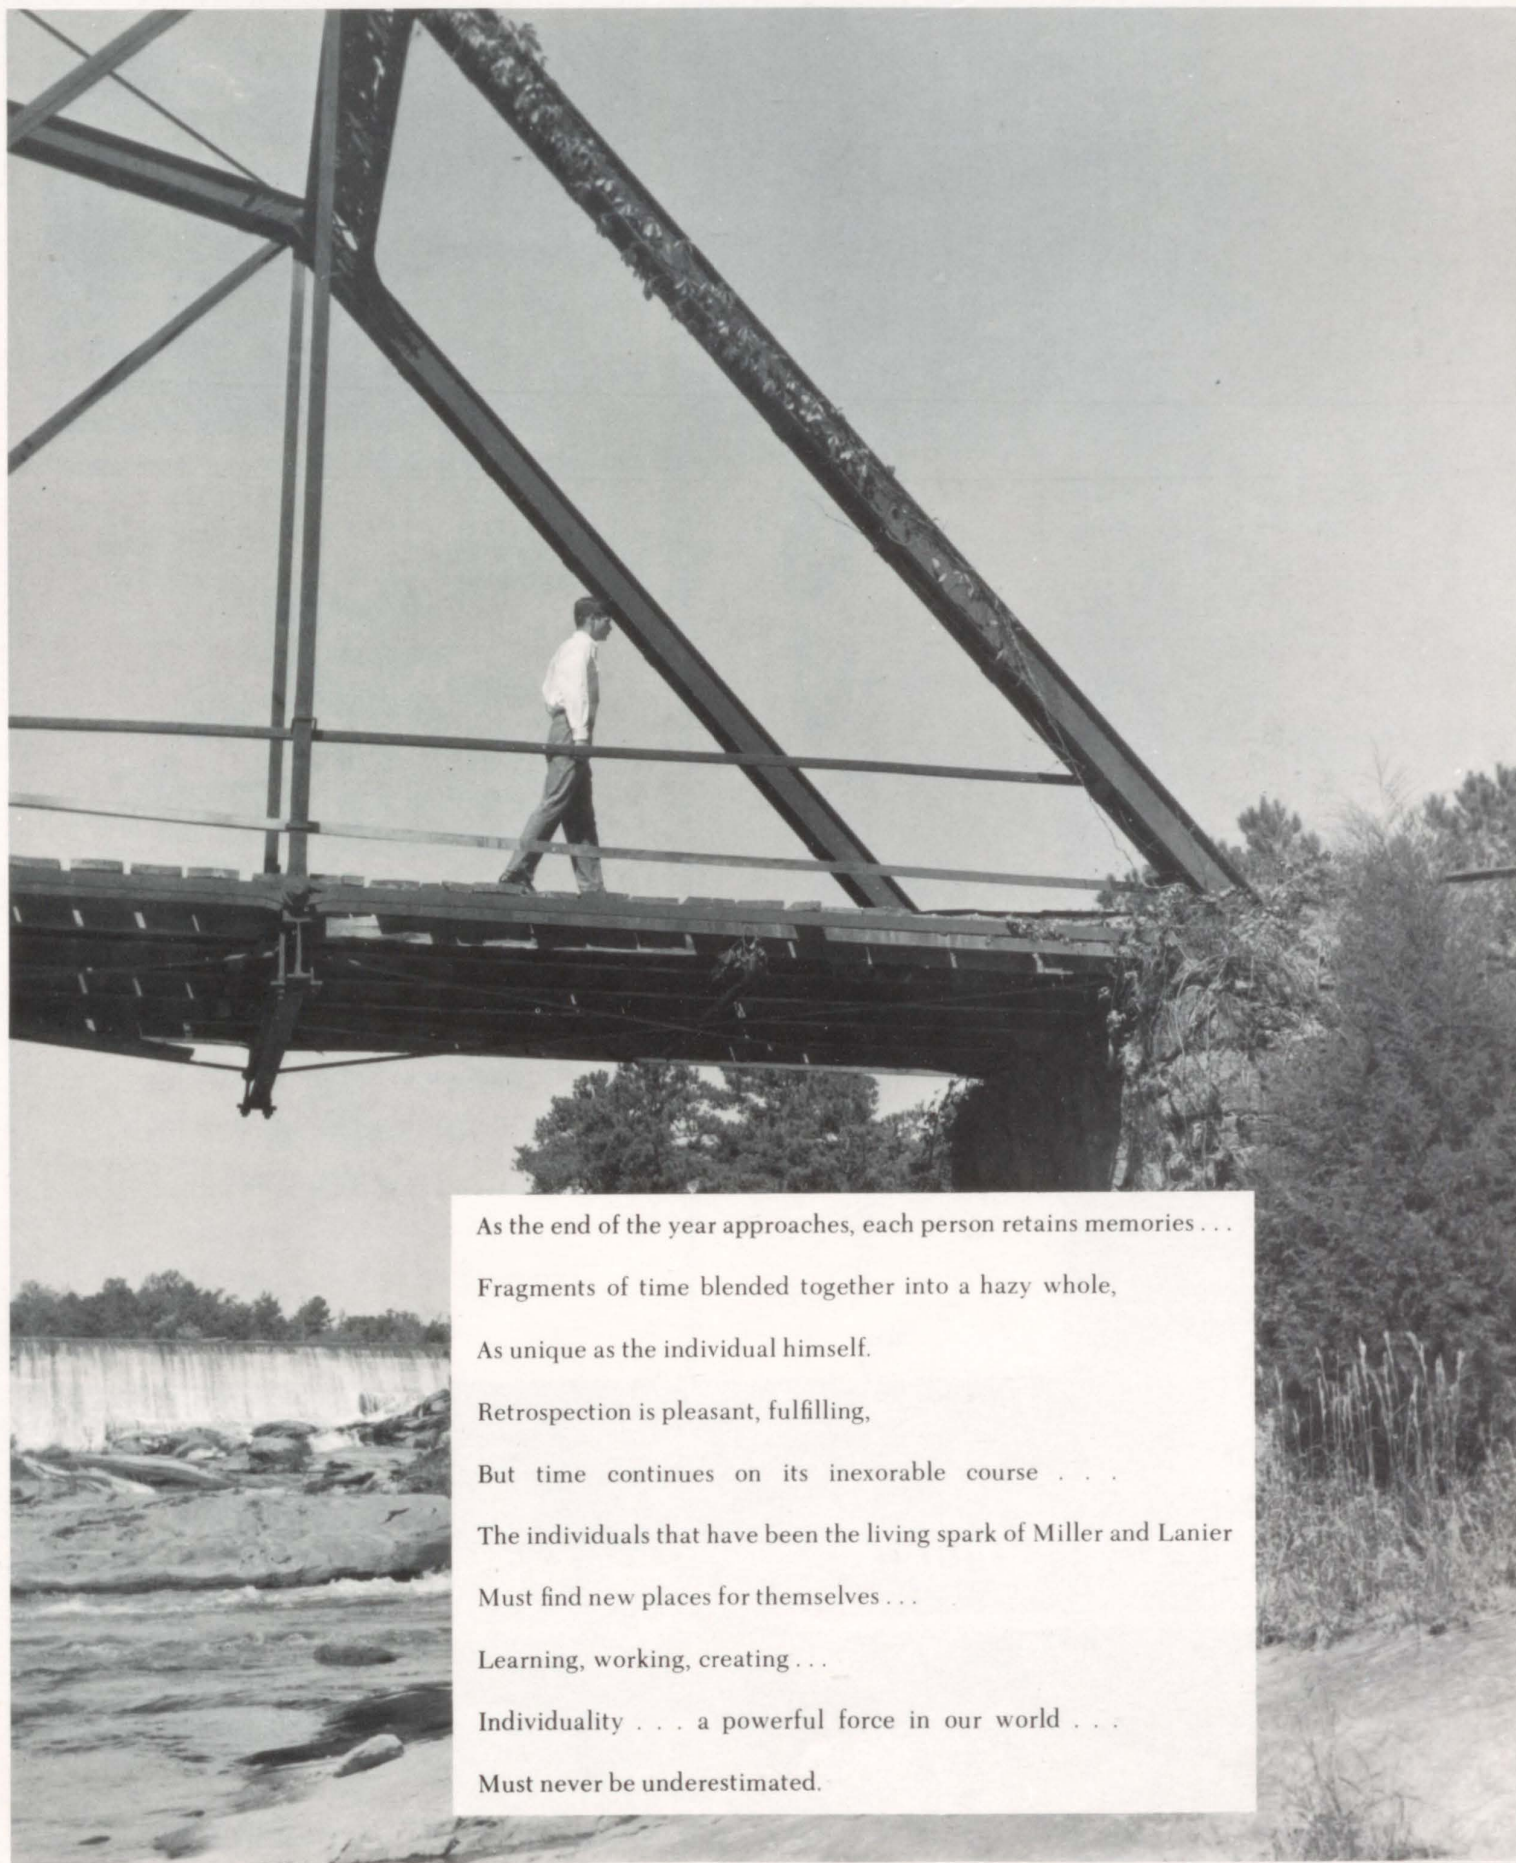

Now at the year's end, our reflections bring us to the realization that all of our trying hours were worth the trouble. If, on the preceding pages, we have captured even a fragment of the whole you, we have succeeded.

The idea began in August—the idea of making this annual unique. Starting with naming it. Somehow, we could never get a feeling of excitement, of enthusiasm, from "The Miller-Lanier Annual." So with your permission, we chose a name . . . a name that incorporates the light femininity of a girls' school with the rigorous military rule that is Lanier's pride. SABERS and SASHES, in its unique and catching way symbolizes two schools . . . separate, and yet together . . . steeped in heritage.

Many thanks go to many people for their contributions to the production of SABERS and SASHES. Special thanks go to Mrs. Willingham and Mr. Nolan, business advisors, Rhonda Bullock and Mark Molleson and their staffs, for without their hard work to bring in funds, there could be no yearbook . . . to Mrs. Brown, Miss Lamar, and Miss Harrison who shoved us in the right direction whenever our motors slowed down . . . to Mr. and Mrs. Meriwether for so patiently letting us tell them where . . . and when . . . and even how to take pictures . . . to Walter Bush for his help with the Sports section . . . to Chuck Arnold for photography assistance . . . to the American Yearbook Company, especially Dan Troy and Steve Waite, for putting up with our continually changing ideas.

We now give to you a memory of this school year, spotlighting you as "The Individual" in a world of individuals. Some parts will bring you smiles . . . some will bring frowns . . . some, chuckles . . . and some, tears. Some parts you will like . . . some you won't. But with the sincere hope that each part reflects a memory, we present to you your SABERS and SASHES—1968.

As the end of the year approaches, each person retains memories . . .
Fragments of time blended together into a hazy whole,
As unique as the individual himself.
Retrospection is pleasant, fulfilling,
But time continues on its inexorable course . . .
The individuals that have been the living spark of Miller and Lanier
Must find new places for themselves . . .
Learning, working, creating . . .
Individuality . . . a powerful force in our world . . .
Must never be underestimated.

There is an Honor in Business that is the fine gold of it;
that reckons with every man justly; that loves light;
that regards kindness and fairness more highly than goods or prices or profit. It becomes a man more than his furnishings or his house. It speaks for him in the heart of everyone. His friendships are serene and secure. His strength is like a young tree by the river.
